

NAIROBI RIVERS
REGENERATION

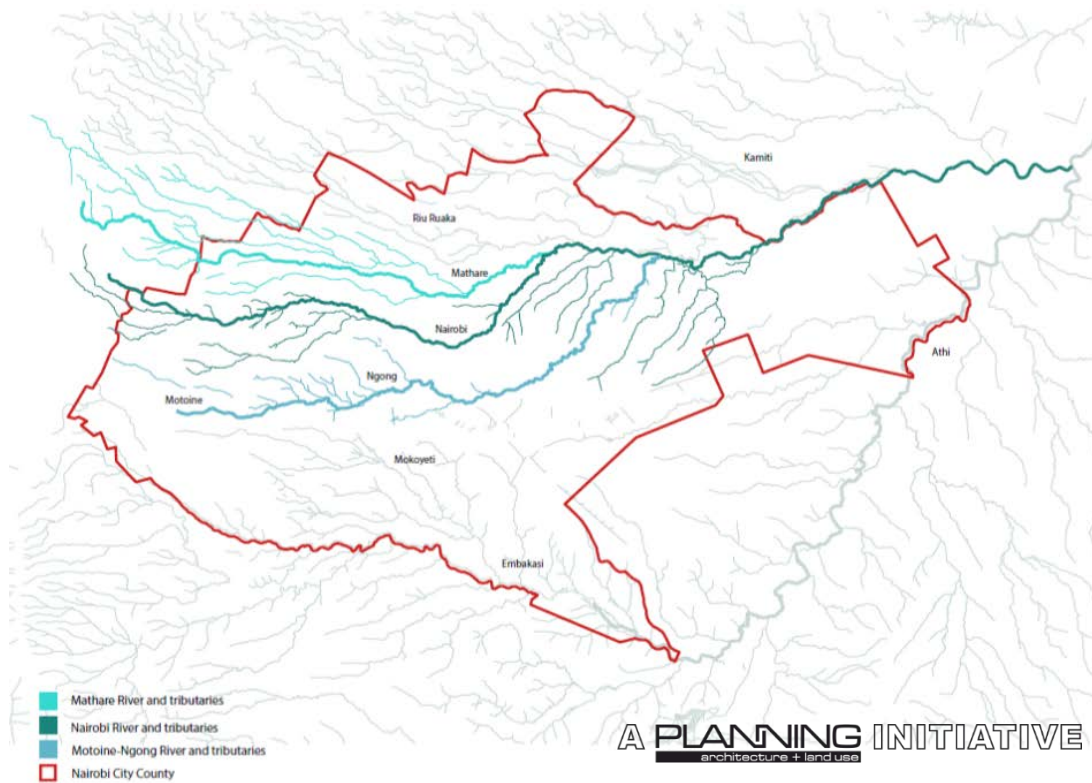

Regreening the City

Henry Musangi
Cameron Rush

Agenda

- Overview
- Challenges
- Opportunities
- Goals
- Precedents
- Next steps

Overview

© PLANNING Systems Services Ltd

Overview

- Nairobi's rivers are currently a liability
- Nairobi's rivers could be one of the Capital's greatest assets
- How to reverse the trend and maintain it going forward

Overview

Challenges

- Urbanisation and population growth

- Pollution of river corridor

- Social segregation and insecurity

Challenges

- Turning our backs to the river
- Fragmented legislation and responsibilities
- Urban planning

Opportunities

- Environmental and ecological value
- Connectivity through green corridors
- Recreational space

Opportunities

- Economic empowerment
- Community participation / ownership
- Support at all levels

Goals and Objectives

UN Sustainable Development Goals. Goals which the project can have a direct impact on shown with solid borders, and indirect impacts indicated by dotted borders

Goals and Objectives

1. Water Quality
2. Waste Management
3. Ecology and biodiversity
4. Urban Agriculture / or Green Infrastructure
5. Resilience to Global Climate Change
6. Management and Governance
7. Safeguard riparian land
8. Urban regeneration and development
9. Connectivity and Mobility
10. Economic prosperity (Investment opportunities)
11. Safety and Security
12. Pride (branding) & Community Engagement
13. Health & Wellbeing
14. Education and Awareness
15. Inclusivity and Accessibility

Precedents

- Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, London, UK
 - <http://www.queenelizabetholympicpark.co.uk/>

- Wadi Hanifah, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia
 - http://ada.gov.sa/ADA_e/DocumentShow_e/?url=/res/ADA/En/Projects/Wadi_Hanifah/index.html

- Sabarmati Riverfront, Ahmedabad, India
 - <http://sabarmatiriverfront.com/>

Next Steps

- Define the vision
- Undertake detailed analysis
- Further stakeholder engagement
- Pilot projects

Contacts

PLANNING Systems Services Ltd.
PLANNING House
Lower Kabete Road
P.O. Box 188-00606
Sarit Centre, Nairobi
Kenya

+254(0)204180650

www.planning-kenya.com